Youth Adventure Weekend 2010

Youth Adventure Weekend this year is going to be a global phenomenon. 4Hers will experience the cultures of the world from Camp Ocala. They’ll learn new things, make great friends, and even help in the 4-H Million Trees Project!

Pack your bags and get your passports ready!

What to Bring:

- Sleeping Bag/Blanket or Sheets
- Clothes for the Weekend
- Closed Toed Shoes
- Shower Shoes
- Towel
- Pillow
- Toiletries
- White T-shirt to Tie-Dye

NO CELL PHONES!!!

See Next Page
MEXICO:
Hola! Ever wanted to go south of the border? Well now you can in this workshop, learn about the Mexican Culture and History as well as making a piñata that you can fill with candy and then break open!

SPAIN:
The Iberian Peninsula, home to the Running of the Bulls and a beautiful Romance language, while you won’t be running from any bulls in this workshop, you will be taught the art of Fencing. En Garde!

AUSTRALIA:
G’Day Mate! Welcome to the outback, where the Kangaroos roam free and Koalas are native. In this workshop you’ll learn about the outback as well as the creatures that live there.

JAPAN:
Ohayou Gozaimasu! (That’s Good Morning in Japanese) This magnificent country is surrounded by water, and has culture centuries of years old. One aspect is the art of paper folding, origami. You’ll learn in this workshop the simplicity of a box to the art of a crane!

Workshops:
Feb. 26th - Feb. 27th
Camp Ocala
18533 NFS
535 Altoona, Florida 32702

Please Mark 2 Workshops in Which You Would Like to Participate:

_____ Mexico
_____ Spain
_____ Australia
_____ Japan